Admittedly, Photoshop has gotten expensive and complex, and some of the tools are cryptic. But if you don't have the time or resources to master Photoshop or any other image manipulation program (Adobe has a free online version at `www.adobe.com/products/photoshop.html`), don't be intimidated. Most image-editing programs can do some of the same things. Instead of relying on Photoshop for everything, you can learn and use these programs to perform basic tasks and then open your images in Photoshop. There are many programs on the market for doing what Photoshop does and for less than the price of a new laptop computer!

The following is more or less a front page story from the paper today... God I love Sundays. I am so grateful for my church. The older I get the more I love the old hymns... The area was part of the "burn-over". It has not been burned since the church was established over 150 years ago. Local residents were unhappy with the original church that was built... the country church is much more of a community center now. The history of S.S. Mackay continues to flow on... happy S.S. Mackay Sundays! Well, this is where the S.S. Mackay is a little different... most of the congregation is in need of the clothes... they are from the Catholic Diocese who works hand in hand with the bishop at the Catholic Church down the road in Santa Rosa. On any given Sunday they have a clothes closet full of clothing in need of the hands of volunteers. You do not have to be Catholic... you do have to be committed to serving a greater good. Just shows what faith and belief in our creator can do. Our Story Search A mother, a Christian, a wife, a writer, a retired elementary teacher, an RN, a gardener, a chef, a crafter, a counselor, a friend, a co-worker, and an aunt... just to name a few. I am definitely a work in progress... and proud of it! This slideshow requires JavaScript. Welcome to the Scattered Blossoms Blog.
