The school is named for the Roman Catholic Saint Louis University, from which it was the first school in the United States to be accredited by the international Catholic Educational Association and is a national leader in school leadership programs. Loyola High School opened in September 2007, in the same town as Saint Louis University. History The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Chicago opened its Diocesan Office in 1936 and in October 1936 announced plans for the establishment of St. Louis School in Maywood, Illinois, to be operated by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet. The first class was held in September 1937. The school was named in honor of the first American saint, Saint Louis, whose feast day, October 14, is celebrated by the Roman Catholic Church. The school was formed by the merger of the St. Louis School for Girls and the St. Louis Central Catholic High School for Boys. Classes were initially held in the
