
Detention Torrent Download !!TOP!! [Torrent]

Students from a small college in Taipei have been kidnapped by an unknown group of people who appear to be from a different world, and held in a detention center for several weeks. This is their horrifying first-person account of the horrors they experienced. The abuse was systematic, and the center was specifically designed to test their mental limits. These kids are probably not destined for any career in the future. The way they talk to each other about their situation, and how they compare it to their previous experiences in life, is very surprising. Take all of this into account, you might decide to give their story your full attention. Enjoy! A growing body of evidence documents the campaign of mass detention and forced assimilation in Xinjiang, begun under President Xi Jinping and his subordinates in 2017. The Chinese government has called the camps vocational skills education and training centers, but the Xinjiang Police Files and previous exposés by journalists, researchers and activists point to another conclusion. They reinforce allegations that the camps are part of a nationwide policy to promote conformity to Communist Party doctrine and majority Han cultural norms and crack down on expressions of cultural, political and religious diversity. Greenwood high school, located in a remote mountainous area, two students found themselves trapped and vulnerable. The place they once knew has changed in unsettling ways, haunted by evil creatures. To escape, they must explore the mysterious campus filled with ominous objects and puzzles. How will they survive in this ever-threatening environment? Could they return to safety in one piece? Set in a fictitious world in the 1960s Taiwan under martial law, Detention, the story-driven atmospheric horror incorporated East Asian elements rarely used in games. Taoism, Buddhism, Chinese mythology, the game draws on local Taiwanese cultural references to tell a unique and terrifying story. In this 2D atmospheric horror side-scroller, players navigate the main characters in a classic point and click fashion to explore a high school where evil encroaches.
